Mr. Kenneth Hansen, of EDAC, called me to state that he was releasing the first batch of material to the Senate Investigating (McCarthy) Committee, which material was largely from the Department of Defense or the Maritime Administration sources. He stated that prior to its release Mr. Stassen, Director of Mutual Security, would hold a press conference and enunciate seven points for the tightening of East-West trade controls, including close cooperation with appropriate Congressional investigating committees, and the appointment of General Donovan as a Special Consultant on East-West trade controls.
